

Current situations of evacuees in the aftermath of the Earthquake (By Prefectures and by facilities)

1. Approximately 780 people live in evacuation centers (A: community hall, school, etc.) in 6 Prefectures.
(Decrease of 160 people compared to the previous survey on November 2, 2011)
2. Approximately 310,000 people live in houses and other residential facilities (D: public housing, emergency temporary housing, rental housing, hospital, etc.)
3. Total number of evacuees nationwide is 330,000 (A + B + C + D)
4. Evacuated people are currently living in more than 1,200 municipalities located in 47 Prefectures.

*1: The above graph shows the sum of evacuees as of November 17, 2011, with the cooperation of relevant local governments.

2: D (Houses) for Miyagi and Fukushima Prefecture does not include hospitals.

3: The number of evacuees living out of their original Prefecture is as follows; Fukushima Prefecture 58,602, Miyagi Prefecture 8,555 and Iwate Prefecture 1,462 people.